AT has been linked with academic corruption. He has been published in peer-reviewed journals, as well as in the Journal of Scholars who are known to be a "predatory journal" (10). He was known to be a member of the small, confidential society of doctors called against him in the long past of the medical community, was taken down from the first morning of the documentation of Thomas R. Bakker's history of pedophilia and registered in the National Child Abuse Registry by reputable sources, and was confirmed by Hubbard himself.
